

Terms and Conditions for Forms, Checklists, and Procedures

Forms, checklists, and procedures at HospitalityLawyer.com are provided as informational, educational, and illustrative purposes only.

HospitalityLawyer.com does not render legal advice. You should always consult legal professionals for your specific needs, questions, and services.

If

you choose to use a form, checklist, or procedure, you do so at your own risk. HospitalityLawyer.com does not make any representations that the forms, checklists, or procedures are suitable for a particular use and the user should always independently assure themselves of the accuracy and legal compliance for their particular jurisdiction.

Checklist to Discourage Drug Trafficking in Bars and Restaurants

1. Do a criminal history check of all employees.
2. Utilize random drug testing.
3. Strictly enforce all liquor laws.
4. Do not allow employees to drink before, during, or after the job.
5. Hire security personnel for high volume times.
6. Establish and maintain a list of people that are not permitted to return to the property.
7. Maintain sufficient lighting to observe all customers' behavior and actions.
8. Post "No Loitering" signs and enforce the rule particularly in parking areas and outside the front and back doors.
9. Consider the installation of video cameras; these can be a deterrent.
10. It has been recommended by some law enforcement officers to remove all inside pay telephones, however you must balance this with the need of your customers.