

Legal representation overseas and the role of the US embassy: Some things to consider:

-Who gets notified at the embassy if you are arrested?

-What is the role of the embassy?

-How do you make bail, if the concept exists?

-How do you obtain in country legal representation?

-What will the embassy or US government do to secure your release, if anything?

-How do bilateral treaties affect your legal status if you are arrested?