Common Issues and Solutions for Travel Safety & Security

Presented By:

Bruce McIndoe – iJET International

Di Reimold – International Air Transport Association

Brad Bonnell – IHG

Brad Bonnell
Director of Global Security
InterContinental Hotels Group

For the past 19 years, Brad Bonnell has been employed by the InterContinental Hotels Group (IHG) as a Director of Security responsible for developing, implementing and directing global threat based intelligence led security programs as well as delivering security capability to all levels of the business including 4,500 business units in over 100 countries.

Brad has a broad range of security expertise and experience including: Complex Fraud Investigations, Security Threat Analysis and Management, Threat & Vulnerability Assessments, Security Crisis Management, Security Training and Executive Protection. Additionally, he has played a key role in the development of corporate anti-fraud, anti-bribery, travel risk and kidnap for ransom policies and plans. He is the primary lead on major investigations into serious incidents which threaten the reputation of the business or could result in costly litigation.

Bruce McIndoe

CEO

iJET® Intelligent Risk Systems

Bruce McIndoe is a recognized leader in the travel, intelligence, and risk management industries. As President and cofounder of iJET, Mr. McIndoe is a key contributor to the company's strategic growth. His technical achievements and visionary approach drove Business Travel News in naming him one of the "Top 25 Most Influential People in the Travel Industry". Mr. McIndoe teaches travel risk management for the GBTA Academy's Manager-Level Education Program and currently serves as Vice Chair of the GBTA Risk Committee. He speaks at numerous industry events and often appears on television, radio, and in print as an authority on global travel and security issues.

Prior to joining iJET, he founded and led CSSi, an Inc. 500 and four-time Washington Technology Fast 50 software company. Mr. McIndoe holds a BS in Physics from Allegheny College and an MS in Computer Science from Johns Hopkins University. He is on the adjunct faculty of the University of Maryland University College (UMUC) where he teaches intelligence related courses.

Di Reimold
Deputy Assistant Administrator
International Air Transport Association

Dorothy (Di) Reimold joined the International Air Transport Association (IATA) in May 2011 and brings with her an extensive background in international government affairs, aviation policy, and program management.

In addition to security and facilitation management, Di plays a key role in developing IATA's concept for passenger security screening over the next decade—the Checkpoint of the Future. Prior to IATA, Di managed the international program for the U.S. Federal Aviation Administration and has held executive responsibilities in both the public and private sectors for more than 20 years.

COMMON ISSUES & SOLUTIONS FOR TRAVEL SAFETY AND SECURITY

- Travel Safety and Security requires a multi-disciplinary, interconnected solution – no one segment or functional area can do it alone.
- Duty of Care. We ALL have the responsibility to protect personnel as they move and operate around the globe. Failing this responsibility impacts the industry.
- Information sharing, common expectations and consistent response structures are key to shared success.
