

DERMATITIS (SKIN DISORDERS QUIZ)

After discussing The Rooms Chronicle article on dermatitis and skin disorders with your employees, ask them to complete the following quiz to assess their comprehension of this important topic.

1. Skin diseases are the most common of all occupational diseases.
TRUE _____ FALSE _____

2. Heat or cold is the most common cause of skin disorder problems at work.
TRUE _____ FALSE _____

3. This is not a problem in our hotel since we don't use any dangerous chemicals.
TRUE _____ FALSE _____

4. The most important factor in determining how a chemical substance is being abused is to review how it is handled and used.
TRUE _____ FALSE _____

5. Some people will develop a skin disease or dermatitis that will have little or no effect on another person.
TRUE _____ FALSE _____

6. If we should spill a corrosive material on our skin, one general rule is to rinse with plenty of running water.
TRUE _____ FALSE _____

7. If it is necessary to add a caustic or acid to water, you should add the acid (or caustic) into water.
TRUE _____ FALSE _____

8. If a person is going to have a reaction to a chemical cleaner or substance, it will occur immediately and not after they have been exposed to it over a period of time.
TRUE _____ FALSE _____

9. If a person develops dermatitis and is away from the affected substance for a few days, it will be safe to send them back to work and use the material
TRUE _____ FALSE _____

10. One of the best ways to prevent skin problems is to wash frequently and thoroughly.
TRUE _____ FALSE _____

The Rooms Chronicle

P.O. Box 2036

Niagara University, NY 14109-2036

Phone: Toll free: 866-READ TRC (732-3872)

Direct dial: 716-286-7375. Fax: 716-286-8277

URL: www.roomschronicle.com

E-mail: editor@roomschronicle.com