

Safety and Security of Shared Economy

PRESENTERS

Ben Coleman
Corporate Security & Global Travel Manager
DISTRIBUTION
NOW

- 10+ years of Corporate Security experience
- 8 years of Travel Risk Management experience
- 3 years Global Travel Management experience

Mike Donohue
Director of Program Management
CMT Energy, Resources & Marine

- 17+ years of Travel Industry experience
- 8 years Global Program Management

Shared Economy

What is it?

A shared economy is an economic model in which individuals are able to borrow or rent assets owned by someone else.

Taxis Alternative taxi services offered by individuals using their own cars U B E R lyft SnapCar	Cars Car pooling services ZipCar ReloRides Rental of travelers' cars left at airports	Private jets Seats on private jets at discounted prices Jetset BookIt EJ
Accommodation Rental of private accommodation airbnb ReloRides Oflets.com	Office sharing Empty offices and meeting spaces Omce ShareDesk prodesk	Food Meals in a host's home VizEat EatWith ECONOMY LEAF

Ride Sharing

- Business Travel Accounts
 - Travel Dashboards
 - Direct Billing
- Safety & Security
 - Background Checks
 - Driver and Vehicle Information
 - Broadcast ETA

Peer-to-Peer Accommodations

- Business Travel Accounts
 - Residences identified as business ready
 - Book through Travel Management Company
- Safety & Security
 - Peer reviews are only source of information
 - Due diligence
 - Property inspections

Key Takeaways

- Don't ignore it – It's here!
- Engage the right teams for discussion
- Important Considerations
 - Duty of Care
 - Data Security
 - Regulatory Standards
 - Peer Based Grading Systems
 - Travel Policy